OM UDGAVEN

Denne kritiske førsteudgave af Septet er baseret på komponistens egenhændige partitur, som foreligger i Det Kongelige Bibliotek i København (Rued Langgaards Samling, RLS 58,1).

Udgivernes tilføjelser er typografisk markeret i partituret ved hjælp af skarpe parenteser og buer med brudt streg. Orienteringsfortegn i runde parenteser skyldes udgiverne. Faste fortegn for klarinetter er tilføjet af udgiverne. Gentagelser og parallelsteder er redaktionelt kompletteret (vice versa) og notationsmæssigt egaliseret.

I klarinet 2-stemmen forekommer i t. 27, 229-230 og 315 et dybt cis (noteret dis), som ikke kan udføres på de B-klarinetter, der benyttes i dag. I Berlioz/Strauss' instrumentationslære (1905) nævnes det, at "moderne" B-klarinetter er forsynet med en ekstra 'cis-klap', men denne instrumenttype har aldrig opnået udbredelse. Udgiverne har valgt at løse problemet ved at lade klarinet 2-stemmen udskrive for klarinet i A, der har klang cis som dybeste tone.

Horn i basnøgle klinger en kvart over den noterede tonehøjde.

Der henvises i øvrigt til Kilder og kritisk beretning s. 26

ABOUT THIS EDITION

This critical first edition of the Septet is based on the composer's autograph score in the Royal Danish Library in Copenhagen (Rued Langgaards Samling, RLS 58,1).

The editors' additions are indicated typographically in the score by square brackets and broken-line slurs and ties. Guiding accidentals in round brackets and key signatures for the clarinets have also been added by the editors. Repetitions and parallel passages have been completed by the editors (vice versa) and the notation has been made consistent.

In bb. 27, 229-230 and 315 of the clarinet 2 part a low C sharp (notated D sharp) occurs, which cannot be executed on the B flat clarinets used today. The Berlioz/Strauss treatise on instrumentation (1905) mentions that "modern" B_b clarinets are equipped with an extra 'c♯ key', but the use of this type of instrument has never become widespread. The editors have solved the problem by producing the clarinet 2 part for an instrument in A, which has sounding c♯ as its lowest tone.

Horn passages in the bass clef sound a fourth above the notated pitch.

OM SEPTET

Langgaard skitserede værket på Tyringe Badesanatorium i Skåne (Sverige) i løbet af tre sommerdage i 1915 – 28.-30. juni – og partiturrenskriften forelå to uger senere med slut-datering 15. juli 1915. Titlen var oprindelig Sinfonietta for 7 Blæseinstrumenter. Denne titel understreger det klassicistiske præg, men den ensatsede komposition følger ikke et traditionelt formskema. Den rapsodiske form og den diverterende tone falder dog ind i traditionen for blæsermusik siden Mozarts tid. Det langsomme afsnit, betegnet Andantino religioso e pastorale, er baseret på salmemelodien Nu hviler mark og enge, en traditionel dansk koralform af Heinrich Isaac's berømte melodi fra omkring 1500, Innsbruck, ich muss dich lassen.

Kompositionen blev næppe skrevet med et bestemt ensemble for øje, og værket henlå upåagtet hos komponisten, indtil han i 1943 indsendte partitur og stemmer til Statsradiofonien som programforslag. Septetten blev antaget og uropført i radioen den 17. juni 1944 af et ensemble, som omfattede nogle af tidens bedste kammermusikere: Erik Thomsen, Mogens Steen Andreassen, Palle Nehammer, Eigil Ellekjær, Gunnar Landsy, Knud Sørensen og Aage Bredahl. Andenopførelsen fandt sted i radioen i 1980 som en studieproduktion med Den Danske Blæserkvintet (med assistance). Værket havde efter alt at dømme ikke været fremført ved en offentlig koncert, før den første fonogramindspilning udkom i 1999 (Det Jyske Ensemble på Classico CLASSCD 311).

ABOUT SEPTET

Langgaard sketched out the work at the Tyringe Badesanatorium in Scania (Sweden) in the course of just three summer's days in 1915 – 28-30 June – and the fair copy of the score was ready two weeks later with the end-dating 15 July 1915. The title was originally Sinfonietta for 7 wind instruments. This title underlines the Classical aspect of the work, but the one-movement composition does not follow a traditional formal pattern. The rhapsodic form and the divertimento-like tone do however accord with the tradition for wind music since Mozart's time. The slow section, called Andantino religioso e pastorale, is based on the hymn tune Nu hviler mark og enge, a traditional Danish chorale form of Heinrich Isaac's famous melody from around 1500, Innsbruck, ich muss dich lassen.

It is unlikely that the composition was written with a particular ensemble in mind, and the work was left unused by the composer until 1943, when he sent the score and parts to the Danish Broadcasting Corporation as a programme suggestion. The septet was accepted and given its first performance on the radio on 17 June 1944 by an ensemble that consisted of some of the best chamber musicians of the day: Erik Thomsen, Mogens Steen Andreassen, Palle Nehammer, Eigil Ellekjær, Gunnar Landsy, Knud Sørensen and Aage Bredahl. The second performance was given on the radio in 1980 as a studio production by the Danish Wind Quintet (with assisting musicians). By all indications, the work had not been performed in a public concert before the first phonographic recording was released in 1999 (by The Jutland Ensemble on Classico CLASSCD 311).

Renskrift sluttet 15 Juli 1915 (Tyringe Sanatorium).

16 blade, 35,5 × 27 cm; 32 beskrevne sider, pagineret 1-32.
Papirtype: Blad 1-3 + 8-10: B. & H. Nr. 11 A. 6. 12. (18 systemer); blad 4-7 + 11-16: B. & H. Nr. 11 A. 7. 14. (18 systemer).

Kommentar.

Manuskriptets oprindelige titelblad (omslag) med titlen Sinfonietta for 7 Blæseinstrumenter blev i 1941 genanvendt som skitsepapir til Klaversonate nr. 3 (foreligger under RLS 80,2). Manuskriptet er ikke efterfølgende blevet forsynet med et nyt omslag. Titelrettelsen og tilføjelsen af datering på første nodeside samt enkelte tempo- og fortegnssrettelser stammer antagelig fra 1943, hvor RL indsendte manuskriptet til Statsradiofonien som programforslag. Metronomtal tilføjet med blyant ved t. 1 og t. 195 må anses for autentiske; det gælder også et blyantstilføjede fortegn i slutakkorden.

B. Ukomplet stemmesæt. Afskrift

Det Kongelige Bibliotek, Rued Langgaards Samling, RLS 58,2 (mu 7505.1469). Usigneret og udateret afskrift. Blæk (musikertilføjelser med blyant).

Overskrifttitel: Sinfonietta for 7 Blæseinstrumenter af Rud Langgaard

Omfatter fløjte, obo, horn 1 og horn 2 (klarinet 1-2 og fagot forsvundet).

Kommentar.

Stemmesættet blev anvendt ved uropførelsen i Statsradiofonien 17.6.1944. Stemmerne er dog tydeligvis af langt ældre dato. De rettelser, komponisten senere foretog i partituret, blev overført af musikerne til stemmerne forud for uropførelsen.

REDAKTIONSGRUNDLAG

Udgaven er baseret på den eneste foreliggende, fuldstændige kilde til værket, autografscoren (kilde A), i dets endelige, rettede form. Stemmesættet (B) er uden kildemæssig interesse for udgaven.

Heading: Septet [originally: Sinfonietta] for 7 wind instruments.
Dated on the first page of music: Composed July 1915 in Tyringe – signed and dated at the end: Rud Langgaard. Comp 28-30 June 1915. Fair copy ended 15 July 1915 (Tyringe Sanatorium).

Paper type: Fol. 1-3 + 8-10: B. & H. Nr. 11 A. 6. 12. (18 staves), fol. 4-7 + 11-16: B. & H. Nr. 11 A. 7. 14. (18 staves).

Commentary.

The original title page (cover) of the manuscript, entitled Sinfonietta for 7 wind instruments, was reused in 1941 as sketch paper for Piano Sonata No. 3 (under RLS 80,2). The manuscript was not subsequently provided with a new cover. The title correction and the addition of dating on the first page of music as well as some corrections of tempi and accidentals probably date from 1943, when RL submitted the manuscript to the Danish National Radio as a programme proposal. Metronome numbers added with pencil at b. 1 and b. 195 are considered authentic; this also applies to an accidental added in pencil in the final chord.

B. Incomplete set of parts. Transcript

The Royal Danish Library. Rued Langgaard's Collection, RLS 58,2 (mu 7505.1469). Unsigned and undated transcript in ink (musicians' additions in pencil).

Heading: Sinfonietta for 7 wind instruments by Rud Langgaard
Comprises flute, oboe, horn 1, horn 2 (clarinet 1-2 and bassoon are lost).

Commentary.

The set of parts was used for the first performance on the Danish National Radio 17 June 1944. However, the parts are obviously of much older date. The corrections made later on by the composer in the score have been transferred by the musicians to the parts prior to the performance.

TEXTUAL BASIS OF THE EDITION

The edition is based on the only available, complete source of the work, the autograph score (source A), in its final, corrected form. The set of parts (B) is of no significance to the edition.

RETNINGSLINJER FOR UDGAVEN

Udgiverens tilføjelser er typografisk markeret i partituret ved hjælp af skarpe parenteser; tilføjede buer er dog angivet med brudt streg. Orienteringsfortegn i runde parenteser skyldes udgiveren. Faste fortegn for klarinet 1-2 er tilføjet af udgiveren. Redaktionelle kommentarer findes nedenfor.

Der er foretaget stiltiende komplettering for så vidt angår manglende triolangivelser. Uegalt anbragte buer og dynamiske angivelser er justeret uden videre. Visse underforståede, men manglende artikulationstegn, navnlig i klarinet 2- og horn 2-stemmer er stiltiende tilføjet. (I kilden er klarinet 1-2 noteret i ét system, det samme gælder horn 1-2; i homofone passager, hvor første- og andenstemmen er noteret med halse op og ned, anbringer Langgaard generelt kun ét artikulationstegn over systemet).

Passager, der gentages, er redaktionelt kompletteret (vice versa) og notationsmæssigt egaliseret. Det drejer sig om følgende passager:

- t. 1-25 = t. 113-137 = t. 286-310 (bortset fra t. 113 er begge gentagelser i kilden markeret ved at fløjtestemmen er gentaget, idet der i øvrigt blot henvises til t. 1-25 med angivelsen come sopra)
- t. 141-156 = t. 158-174
- t. 141-190 = t. 234-283 (gentagelsen er markeret ved at en enkelt stemme, skiftevis cl 1, ob og fl, er gentaget, og i øvrigt henvises der til t. 141-190 med angivelsen come sopra)
- t. 195-200(201) = t. 218-223(224)

Gensidig komplettering for så vidt angår dynamik og artikulation er desuden foretaget i vidt omfang i følgende parallele taktgrupper:

- t.1-3 ~ 334-336
- t. 26-39 ~ 311-325

NOTER

takt	stemme	kommentar
1	-	det opr. begyndelsestempo var Allegro
22	cl 2	node 1: # udeladt (notationsfejl, jfr. oboens a ²)
96	-	den opr. angivelse poco a poco più animato begyndende ved taktenes sidste fjerdedel er overstreget af RL; udeladt
112	-	stringendo anført midt i takten er overstreget af RL; udeladt
141-169,
234-263	tutti	motivet noteres af RL stedvis med stacc. over sidste node, stedvis uden; udgiveren har valgt redaktionelt at indsætte stacc. de manglende steder ved motivets begyndelse og [simile] ved motivets fortsættelse
342	cl 1	node 1: # tilføjet, antagelig af RL, med blyant i manuskriptet (hvilket ændrer slutakkorden fra h-mol til H-dur); taget til følge af udgiverne

Bendt Viinholt Nielsen, rev. 15. maj 2002

EDITORIAL GUIDELINES

The editor's additions and emendations are indicated typographically in the score by square brackets; added slurs and ties are, however, shown with broken lines. Cautionary accidentals in round brackets are also editorial. Key signatures for clarinets have been added by the editors. Editorial comments are to be found below.

Missing triplet marks have been tacitly supplied. Minor adjustments of irregularly located slurs and dynamics have been made without comment. Certain implied but lacking articulation marks, especially in the clarinet 2 and horn 2 parts, are tacitly supplied. (In the source, the clarinets 1-2 are written on one stave, the same applies to horns 1-2; in homophonic passages, where the first and second parts are notated with stems up and down, Langgaard generally places only one articulation mark over the stave).

Passages that are repeated are editorially completed (vice versa) and the notation made uniform. This affects the following passages:

- bb. 1-25 = bb. 113-137 = bb. 286-310 (with the exception of b. 113, both repetitions in the source are marked by a repetition of the flute part and a come sopra reference to bb. 1-25)
- bb. 141-156 = bb. 158-174
- bb. 141-190 = bb. 234-283 (the repetition is marked by a single part, alternately cl 1, ob and fl, which is repeated, and supplemented by a come sopra reference to bb. 141-190)
- bb. 195-200(201) = bb. 218-223(224)

Mutual completion of dynamics and articulation has also been extensively carried out in the following parallel passages:

- bb.1-3 ~ 334-336
- bb. 26-39 ~ 311-325

NOTES

bar	part	comment
1	-	the original initial tempo was Allegro
22	cl 2	note 1: # suppressed (notational error, cf. a ² in the oboe)
96	-	the original indication poco a poco più animato beginning at the last crotchet of the bar was crossed over by RL; suppressed
112	-	stringendo in the middle of the bar annulled by RL; suppressed
141-169,
234-263	tutti	the motive is partly written by RL with stacc. on the last note, partly without; the editors have inserted stacc. editorially when it is missing at the beginning of a phrase and added [simile] at the continuation of the motive
342	cl 1	note 1: # added, probably by RL, in pencil in the manuscript (which changes the final chord from B minor to B major); followed by the editors
